CHAMCO

Role Profile

Position Title: Service Technician

Position Summary: This position is suited for Journeyman Technicians or strong Apprentices for large industrial air compression and pump service work.

Key Responsibilities:

- Complete critical diagnosis and repairs on industrial air compressors and air dryers on customer sites.
- Complete scheduled maintenance on industrial air compressors and air dryers on customer sites.
- Complete critical diagnosis, tear down, and overhaul of industrial fluid pumps on customer site and Chamco shop.
- Complete field installations of equipment.
- Maintain an organized work flow, completion of required service reports, supporting documentation, time sheets, and others as required.
- Complete all repairs in a timely and professional manner, referring to manufacturers technical repair information, policies & procedures.
- Maintain highest standard of company safety policies.
- Promote and contribute to the highest standard of safety culture.
- Build and maintain exceptional relationships with customers and site contacts.
- Come to work equipped with industry quality basic hand tools up to 1 1/4”.

Qualifications Required: The successful candidate for this role will have some combination of the following qualifications:

- Must be a resourceful strategic thinker with the ability to work alone and work through daily challenges
- Strong mechanical and maintenance skills are required

- Strong diagnostic skills with an ability to understand and interpret pneumatic, hydraulic and electrical drawings/schematics.
- Must be able maintain a clean drivers abstract. Must be provided at time of hire with annual driver's abstracts updates
- Journeyman Red Seal Certified Millwright.
- 3rd or 4th year apprentice
- Five years of related experience in the field of pumps and/or compressors is an asset.

This position is a great opportunity for Heavy Duty Technicians and Automotive Service Technicians with an existing skill looking to transition into a new and rewarding industry.

This Position Reports To: Service Foreman